

Live with eternity in view.

Be it the sin of fornication or wickedness, or covetousness or maliciousness or envy or murder or rebellion and debate against God's word or deceit and lying or hypocrisy or malignity or whispering and backbiting or gossiping or hatred of God and man, or pride and boasting or disobedience to parents or any unrighteousness, it is the one hindrance, the one barrier between you and God. What shall I do? Forsake the sin, accept the Lord! Ask for the cleansing flood of His blood to cleanse you on the inside. On your knees, pray, be clean and renewed. Only one life! Only one truth! Only one hindrance! What a sobering thought. "Come NOW, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow: though they be red like crimson they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land" (Isaiah 1:18-19).

Only one life and its length are so very brief and uncertain. How old are you? Not much time remains! Think and act on these things.

Only ...

“And as IT IS APPOINTED unto men once to die but after this the judgement” Hebrews 9:27. But if we die, is there not a chance to come back and live again? Is there a single life - only one - to live? Yes, only one life. What a terrifying realization: “IT IS APPOINTED”! “ONCE TO DIE” “AFTER THIS THE JUDGEMENT! Is death certain? Is there a day of judgement? Is there a reward for a life of sinful career, without a second chance to live? “IT IS APPOINTED” ONCE TO DIE” “AFTER THIS, THE JUDGEMENT”.

What account will you give? When you come to the end of the road, when the last bell rings? When the pleasures of life cease to be pleasures, when beautiful buildings and equipage are no more delightful? When you are on the brink of eternity, what account would you give? No doubt, you would tell of church membership, of baptism and confirmation, of monthly contribution or tithe paying, of trips to holy lands and of self-righteousness! But your answer would be void of Christ as your life on earth had been void of Christ. And your hope would be shattered! The hope of heaven would be replaced with the reality of hell. What is your hope? It would depend on what your decision is now - wise or otherwise!

“For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. ... So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. ”
(Psalm 90: 9,12)

...one life

Only one life! And only one TRUTH that matters for time and eternity! “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). “Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for He shall save His people from their sins” (Matthew 1:21). “God commended His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us” (Romans 5:8).

Only one TRUTH! Believe and act on this truth. Tell the Lord of your sinful condition, sinful actions and sinful state. Ask for His forgiveness and ask the Lord to come into your life and heart, to become your Saviour.

If you do that with sincere, hearty repentance, believing from the heart as you pray. Christ will come into your heart with peace and joy unspeakable flooding your soul. And you will have the ONLY ONE EXPERIENCE that would put purpose into your living. “Only one life”; Only one TRUTH; “Only one experience.” Think and act on these things.

Only one life! And there is only one hindrance to stop the flow of God’s love into that life: Only one hindrance – sin.

.... behold, NOW is the accepted time; behold, NOW is the day of salvation. (2 Corinthians 6:2b)
